

2023-2024 Loan Discharge Statement Form

Directions: The National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) indicates that you have one or more federal student loans and/or TEACH Grant service obligation(s) discharged because of total and permanent disability. Before you are eligible to receive your offered financial aid, you must complete this form and submit with supporting documentation if necessary.

How to Submit Form: This form can be submitted via the Document Uploader

- Fields to select on the Document Uploader: Department: Financial Aid & Scholarships; Term: 2023-2024; Category: Loan Forms; Category 2: Loan Discharge Statement Form; Document: Loan Discharge Statement Form

STEP 1: INTENT TO PURSUE

Complete this section on your intent to pursue Federal Loan Aid for 2023-2024:

No: I am not interested in receiving Federal Loans. I understand that my current offered or accepted loan(s) will be cancelled so that my previously discharged loans will not be affected.

Yes: I am interested in receiving Federal Loans. I will submit a physician's letter on official letterhead stating that I can engage in "substantial gainful activity" such as working or attending school. This letter will override the previously established total and permanent disability status. **

Yes: I am interested in receiving Federal Loans. I have a physician letter on file from a prior year. Prior approval must be within three academic years from the date of the Physician Letter. **

I acknowledge that by requesting new federal student loan(s), my previously conditionally discharged loan(s) will be removed from their current conditional discharge status and the Department of Education will reinstate my obligation to repay the conditionally discharged loan(s). I also acknowledge that neither the previous conditionally discharged loan(s) nor the new loan(s) requested can be discharged in the future on the basis of any present impairment unless that condition substantially deteriorates to the extent that the definition of total and permanent disability is again met.
